SNOW DAYS

If the public schools are closed, please do not assume the studio is as well. A recording will be left on the studio's answering machine one hour before the start of classes. There will be no refunds or make-ups for missed classes due to weather related cancellations.

ABSENCES

Good attendance is imperative to the growth of our dancers. Attendance is especially important in the winter months when we begin choreography for our recital. The absence of one dancer affects the entire group. If any dancer misses an exceptional amount of classes we reserve the right to remove them from the class. Please make every effort to attend each class.
